

How does the school decide if my child has SEND?

From time to time some children require additional support for a set period of time to help meet their needs or improve their learning. The decision to do this is made by the school and is based on a variety of factors including academic progress, and/or assessments carried out by teaching staff or other professionals. It may also be based on ensuring children have a smooth transition into school or require support when going through significant change either at home or school.

The school frequently holds pupil progress meetings in which each child's progress is discussed. If it is felt that a child may need some additional support then this will be discussed with parents/carers and will be put into place.
